FIND MORE

great reads from Midwestern authors and publishers!

Every year, via our Midwest Book Awards program and member title catalog, MiPA aims to connect readers and booksellers with new books coming out of the Midwest.

Founded in 1984 in Minneapolis, the Midwest Independent Publishers Association exists today as a vibrant professional association that serves the publishing communities in all twelve states in our region and include indie traditional, hybrid, and university presses, as well as indie author-publishers Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.

MiPA aims to create an inclusive publishing community that shares resources, fosters networking, and increases the quality of Midwestern independent publishing as we help our member publishers grow.

THE 34TH ANNUAL MIDWEST BOOK AWARDS IS

OPEN FOR ENTRIES

RECOGNIZING THE BEST BOOKS PUBLISHED IN THE MIDWEST

Recognizing excellence in books published by Midwestern publishers, the 34th Annual Midwest Book Awards is open for entries until January 13, 2024 for books published in 2022.

Spanning 35 categories, each entry is judged by a panel of librarians from across the Midwest. As part of MiPA's commitment to indie publishing, each entrant receives judges' feedback covering writing, editing, and design.

Gold and silver winners are announced during MiPA's annual gala in June 2024. In addition to being featured in this catalog, denoted by gold and silver medallions, winners will be promoted via social media, MiPA's Virtual Reading Series, and other literary recognition opportunities.
